- (6) The employing agency must have on file with the Commission an annual Declaration of Need for Fully Qualified Educators.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

- (1) The employing agency must provide orientation, guidance and assistance when an individual obtains, for the first time, any of the emergency teaching permits described in this leaflet. The employing agency may vary the nature, content and duration of the orientation to match the amount of training and experience previously completed by the emergency permit teacher. It shall include, but not be limited to, an overview of all of the following topics:
 - (a) the curriculum that an emergency permit teacher is expected to teach;
 - (b) effective techniques of classroom instruction at the emergency permit teacher's assigned level: preschool, elementary, middle, secondary, or adult education; and
 - (c) effective techniques of classroom management at the emergency permit teacher's assigned level: elementary or secondary.To the extent reasonably feasible, the orientation to teaching shall occur before the emergency permit teacher begins his or her teaching assignment.
- (2) The employing agency will assign an experienced educator to guide and assist each holder of an emergency teaching permit described in this leaflet. The experienced educator shall be a certificated employee of the employing agency, or a certificated retiree of a California school district or county office of education; and have completed at least three years of full-time classroom teaching experience.
- (3) Emergency permits are valid for one year.
- (4) Teaching or service authorized by an emergency permit (except the 30-Day Substitute Permit) is restricted to schools operated by the employing agency that requested the permit.

REQUIREMENTS FOR REISSUANCE OF EMERGENCY TEACHING PERMITS:

- (1) Submission of a complete application packet, including payment of the fee(s) and other documents required to verify completion of all requirements for the specific emergency permit;
- (2) For the first reissuance only, verification by the employing agency that orientation, guidance and assistance have been provided for holders of emergency teaching permits. For every reissuance after, verification by the employing agency that guidance and assistance have been provided for holders of emergency teaching permits; and
- (3) For the first reissuance only:
 - (a) an evaluation by a Commission-accredited professional preparation institution identifying requirements the emergency permit holder must complete to be eligible for the related credential; and
 - (b) verification that holders of the Emergency Multiple Or Single Subject Teaching Permits, Emergency Multiple Or Single Subject Teaching Permits with either a CLAD or BCLAD emphasis and the Emergency Education Specialist Instruction Permit have completed one of the following:
